

Phi Delta Kappa International - Chapter 1524 at LIU Post

Purpose: Phi Delta Kappa International (PDK I), founded in 1906, is a professional association for educators, which is dedicated to fostering leadership, research, and service in the field of education. Chapter 1524 of Phi Delta Kappa (PDK), established on the LIU Post Campus in 1986, provides free professional development events open to undergraduate and graduate students, educators, administrators, and those interested in education. All programs are held on the LIU Post Campus. These events include speakers and activities designed to enrich all participants and further the aims of PDK. Participants receive a “Certificate of Attendance” for each program. Chapter 1524 actively engages students in pursuits that are needed in today’s educational landscape.

Eligibility: Undergraduate and graduate education students and all faculty, as well as alumni are encouraged to become members of Phi Delta Kappa International and Chapter 1524. Potential members can obtain an application and additional information regarding PDK I and the local LIU Post Chapter by emailing: roberta.levitt@liu.edu or lucille.devito@liu.edu

Benefits: Phi Delta Kappa International members have access to the Kappan magazine (which contains relevant, researched-based articles), international study tours, and group insurance discounts. Members also have a discounted access to JSTOR, a digital library containing over 1,700 academic journals, books, and primary sources. Professional webinars, scholarships, awards, and fellowships are also available to them.

Phi Delta Kappa Chapter 1524 provides an opportunity for students, teachers, alumni, faculty, and administrators to network and cultivate professional relationships, work together in leadership, service, and research roles, and have a positive influence on today’s education in the community and beyond.
